

Acting game

Age 10-16

Topic:

Language, Literature and Performing Arts

Methods:

Acting out text in groups

Key terms:

acting, creativity, independent learning

What we need:

a suitable space

Estimated time:

45-90 minutes (1-2 lessons)

Activity description:

If plays appear on the scheme of work for language or drama lessons then why not transfer some of the practical acting lessons to the school grounds. Pupils can practise a scene in small groups and then perform it. The school grounds offer the benefits of space, better sound dissipation and a more varied terrain that can be imaginatively included in the performance.
